Today in History

The "Peanuts" comic strip, by Charles M. Schultz, first appeared in newspapers in 1950. Peanuts has been described as "the most shining example of the American success story in the comic strip field"; this is ironic, given its theme is "the great American unsuccess story." The main character, Charlie Brown, is meek, nervous and lacks self-confidence. He is unable to fly a kite or win a baseball game. Peanuts achieved success with its television specials, several of which, including A Charlie Brown Christmas and It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown.
