Today in History

George Orwell published Animal Farm in 1945. Animal Farm is an allegorical and dystopian novel which reflects events leading up to the Russian Revolution of 1917 and then on into the Stalin era in the Soviet Union. Orwell, a democratic socialist, was a critic of Joseph Stalin and hostile to Moscow-directed Stalinism, especially after his experiences with the NKVD and the Spanish Civil War. The Soviet Union, he believed, had become a brutal dictatorship, built upon a cult of personality and enforced by a reign of terror.

Ms. Leigh Clapp has now moved her classroom to the library on the first floor of the Ely building. She has transformed this place to support research and active learning. Four computers have been moved to the library so that students have the opportunity to use both the Internet as well as books in print to enhance their learning. Homework Lab will be held in the library from 3pm to 4pm daily. Please stop by and take advantage of this great resource to you.

WORK HARD BE KIND

Terri Dietz and Kim Rogers are the co sponsors of Student Leaders and they have begun with a bang up start. Please take a look at the window display as you enter the Ely Building showing the Student Leaders' new look. The vision that student leaders will work hard to embody each day is "Work Hard, Be Kind." It's what we all aspire to achieve.
